MEMORANDUM FOR AIRMAN & FAMILY READINESS CENTERS

FROM: HQ USAF/A1SAA
1040 Air Force Pentagon
Washington DC 20330-1040

SUBJECT: Supporting Spouses of Deployed Members with Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) family members

The 2016 Secretary of the Air Force Spouse and Family Forum generated after action items to improve the Exceptional Family Member Program. These items included a requirement to enhance support to spouses of deployed personnel with EFMP family members. Effective immediately, Airman & Family Readiness Centers (A&FRC) will be aware of all Q-coded Airmen deploying from their installations. Additional assistance and outreach will be offered to these spouses and EFMP family members.

The A&FRC's collective core services are the bridge for EFMP families to build resiliency, connect to resources, and maintain readiness for deploying Airmen.

Additional guidance from AFPC/DPFF will follow. If you have any questions in the meantime, please contact the Reach Back team. We appreciate your support.
